Special to The Evening World.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 26.—The Tiger is powerful. Dartmouth's big green team was swept off its feet this afternoon by the score of 22 to 7. The Princeton boys, especially DeWitt and Capt. Penleton, tore through the heavy line for long gains. In the second period

Baker made a 25-yard pass to Dick.

Hundreds of Princeton and Dartmouth rooters poured into the small college town all through the morning. Greater numbers of the fans were in evidence than have been seen down here since the Yale-Princeton football game last June. The campus was wonderfully enlivened by the appearance of the rich colors of the ladies and the great number of yellow and green carnations.

At 12:30 the gates of the university field were opened and the crowds began to fill the big stands. Dartmouth had been assigned the west stand, facing away from the sun, while Princeton took the east stand. Among the first to take their places in the green section was a band composed of Hanover boys. Dartmouth spirit is well known. Her singing and cheering last year at the annual game was a feature of that contest which the Tigers won only by a close goal from the field.

IDEAL WEATHER FOR FOOT-

BALL.

As the hour for the game approached the weather grew cooler, and a stiff breeze sprang up from the northwest.

Harring the wind it was an ideal day for the football game, the sun being shielded from the eyes of the players by a thick mass of clouds.

Gov. Wilson was the first attraction of the game. When he appeared with

'T WAS A MONKEY SPOILED CARUSO'S HAPPY HOME LIFE

Smarting Under Central Park Scandal, Found Ugly Simian to Welcome Him.

INSUFFERABLE, HE SAYS.

So He Left His Sweetheart and She Brought Suit Against Him.

MILAN, Oct. 25.—The famous New York monkey-house episode was what disrupted the Caruso-Giacchetti household, so the tenor resorted to-day in the slander suit he is pressing against his former sweetheart here. Not, he explained, that Signorina Giacchetti was particularly jealous of the woman he was accused of making advances to in the slum home in Central Park. No, she made a jest of it instead, and a jest of a kind that no high-spirited man either could or ought to endure.

"It was at Nice," said Caruso, leaning forward earnestly and punctuating his remarks with numerous gestulations and shrugs. "I had hastened there from New York, still smarting from the humiliation I had undergone.

But would forget it, I thought, in my beloved Ada's society. She would be all sympathy and kindness. I was sure.

"But what did I find? Why, that she had installed a pet monkey, and a most ugly one, in the house.

WHAT BITTER RECOLLECTIONS

THE MONKEY AROUSED.

"Need I say that the recollections he aroused in my breast were not of the most pleasant kind? Yet it was not intended as an affront, I thought at first. That Ada should have acquired this animal as a pet, I said to myself, in a coincidence, no doubt, it was thoughtless of her, such thoughtlessness as it requires an effort to forgive, but thoughtlessness nevertheless, nothing worse.

"I was wrong. It was not thought-lessness. It was an atrocious joke.

When I remonstrated with the Glaciatti, pointing out that in my then frame of mind a monkey was not a pet I cared to tolerate about me, what was her reply?

"Oh," said she, "it is a useful beast.

Can any one know better than you that publicity it obtains for one in the public?"

"That was estrangement between us

Tiger Captain and Star Half In Dartmouth Game To-Day

ROOSEVELT GOES FOR WALK; GAINS STRENGTH FAST

Spends Hour Out of Doors and Plans Another Stroll for Birthday.

OYSTER BAY, Oct. 25.—For the first time since his return to Oyster Bay Col. Roosevelt went out of doors today. It was a warm, sunny day, and the Colonel was impatient to be out.

Dr. George W. Faller thought he would be benefited by being in the open and told him that if he would walk slowly and not stay out more than an hour he might stroll around near the house.

Col. Roosevelt walked half way down the hill, saying he felt "bully." When he began to climb up again, however, he found it was not so easy as he thought, for he was still weak.

When the Colonel's chauffeur, after his morning trip to the village, started back for Sagamore Hill, he had with him dozens of packages which half filled the automobile. They were birthday presents for the Colonel, which had come from many parts of the country and a few of them from abroad. Col.

Roosevelt will be fifty-four years old to-morrow. He expects to celebrate his birthday by taking a short walk with Mrs. Roosevelt if it is a clear day.

COLONEL IS TO HAVE BODY-

GUARD.

Col. Roosevelt's secretary came to Oyster Bay this morning, and the Colonel went on with the preparation of the speech he is to deliver in New York next week.

While the police are watching to-day to see that a six-foot crank does not return to the Roosevelt home and try to force his way in, preparations are

ADRIANOPLE AFIRE AS BULGARS BEGIN TO BOMBARD CITY

Three Forts Are Captured and Eighteen Hundred Turks Taken Prisoners.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 25, 4:30 A. M.—

A portion of the town of Adrianople has been set on fire by the Bulgarian artillery, according to private despatches received here from the vicinity.

The Bulgarian troops have taken the forts of Maras, Havaras and Bulfir, lying to the north and northeast of the city, and have also captured a railroad station in the extreme outskirts of the town. Eighteen hundred prisoners have fallen into their hands.

The 600 prisoners who arrived here yesterday from Mustapha Pasha were captured in some of the smaller towns taken by the Bulgarians.

The entire absence of Turkish officers among the prisoners captured at Kirk-Kiliseh is much commented on, as the first reports represented that the whole garrison had been taken.

The Bulgarian army is reported to be advancing along the whole front, and a despatch to the Government organ, the Mir, says the Turks are retreating in panic, while the civilian population is fleeing toward Constantinople.

The village of Kotevchi was captured by the Bulgarians yesterday, after severe fighting at the point of the bayonet.
